$4,770 per term      $19,075 per year

Secondary School (Classes 7 to 10):

$6,080 per term      $24,320 per year

Additional costs and Class Trip costs

To give families an idea of the annual costs for Class Trips and Class sporting costs and text books for Senior Secondary students, the approximate costs are:

- Class 1: Approximately $70
- Class 2:      “      $110
- Class 3:      “      $380
- Class 4:      “      $380
- Class 5:      “      $1,000
- Class 6:      “      $1,000
- Class 7:      $1,500 to $2,000
- Class 8:      $500 to $800

- Class 9: $800 to $2,000
- Class 10: $800 to $2,000

On approval of enrolment, the family will be notified of the exact amount, and these additional costs are to be paid with the Tuition Fees.

Costs that need to be met by parents and which are not paid to the school are:

- Students provide their own pencils, pens, rulers etc
- Health Insurance (to be organised by the child's parents)
- Bus fare to and from school each day (overseas students are not entitled to a free school bus pass).
- Any out-of-school activities (e.g. music tuition, musical instruments, sporting costs etc)
- English proficiency tutoring, and workbooks, if required.

There is an additional once-only cost of approximately $100 for Class 7 to 10 students, to be paid to the Office on arrival at the school, for mathematics equipment, Eurythmy slippers, school hat etc. The Office will then provide the student with the correct calculator and other mathematical instruments.

Discounts For Siblings

If siblings are attending Lorien Novalis School at the same time, a discount for the siblings can be applied for.
