4.13 Course completion within expected duration of study & 4.14 Monitoring course progress

Overseas Student Policy (700)

As a Registered Provider, Lorien Novalis School must comply with the provisions of the National Code of Practice for Registration Authorities and Providers of Education and Training to Overseas Students 2007 (National Code 2007). The National Code 2007 set out the requirements of education providers in relation to the educational outcomes and services which must be delivered to students on student visas. Education and training providers that enrol Overseas Students studying in Australia on student visas are regulated by the Commonwealth Education Services for Overseas Students (ESOS) Act 2000. Standard 10 of the National Code 2007 requires registered providers to have a documented policy and procedure for monitoring, recording and assessing course progress. This policy outlines the way that Lorien Novalis School will monitor the academic progress of Overseas Students:

- Lorien Novalis School monitors, records and assesses the course progress of each student for each unit of the course (school term) for which the student is enrolled.
- Lorien Novalis School has a documented intervention strategy available to staff and students, specifying the procedures for identifying and assisting students at risk of not meeting the course progress requirements.
- Lorien Novalis School will implement the intervention strategy for any student who is at risk of not meeting satisfactory course progress requirements. This intervention strategy must be activated where the student is at risk of failing multiple subjects. Students who have failed or are not yet competent in 50% or more of the units attempted in any study period (school term) are considered to be making unsatisfactory course progress.
- Lorien Novalis School will notify the student in writing of an intention to report the student for not achieving satisfactory course progress and inform the student of the opportunity to access the school's complaints and appeals process within 20 working days.

After the expiration of the 20 day period, withdrawal of the student from the appeal process and/or after the settlement of any appeal in Lorien Novalis School favour, Lorien Novalis School will notify the Department of Industry, Innovation, Climate Change, Science, Research and Tertiary Education (DIISRTE) through PRISMS if a student does not satisfy student visa requirements relating to satisfactory course progress (i.e. the student has breached Condition 8202 of their student visa).

Lorien Novalis School policy is that students do not repeat a unit of study. However, the school may recommend that the student attend a lower year level in order to achieve a satisfactory course outcome.

4.15 Monitoring attendance

Lorien Novalis School monitors attendance of students. Ref. C.16.1

4.16 Course Credit

Lorien Novalis School does not offer course credit.

Lorien Novalis School complies with requirements for the ROSA and HSC.

4.17 Deferring, suspending or cancelling the student's enrolment

Lorien Novalis School will only grant a deferment of commencement of studies for compassionate and compelling circumstances.

Once the student has commenced the course, Lorien Novalis School will only grant a suspension of study for compassionate and compelling circumstances.

The duration of the student's study may only be extended where it is clear that the student will not complete the course within the expected duration, as specified on the student's Confirmation of Enrolment for Overseas Students.

Overseas Student

Policy (700)

6. Welfare and Accommodation

Homestay families are required to obtain a Working With Children Check number and submit to Provider with application for Homestay Parent.

8. Orientation Programme

Either before a new overseas student starts studying at Lorien Novalis School or on their first day the student/s will be given a tour of the grounds and facilities that they will be using at the school. Student/s will also have Lorien Novalis School's policies regarding Overseas Students explained. Class Guardians (Classes 8-12) are the first contact at the school for the student. The student/s will be introduced to the Overseas Student Coordinator (Classes 8-12) who will check in with student/s regularly during their stay and monitor the academic progress and attendance (with the support of the Class Guardians). A student will also help a new overseas student to find their way around and help the student to settle in.

Whilst orientation will happen initially it may take some time for the student to settle in to Lorien Novalis School and life in Australia. The Class Teacher/Guardian, the Overseas Student Coordinator, Registrar or Guardian/Homestay Parent are available for the overseas student if assistance is required.

9. Privacy Policy
